During meetings, only stockholders who hold voting shares may vote. Thus, holders of non-voting shares generally cannot vote. However, the Corporation Code allows holders of non-voting shares to vote on the following matters:

- (a) Amendment of the articles of incorporation;
- (b) Adoption and amendment of by-laws;
- (c) Sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property;
- (d) Incurring, creating or increasing bonded indebtedness;
- (e) Increase or decrease of capital stock;
- (f) Merger or consolidation of the corporation with another corporation or other corporations;
- (g) Investment of corporate funds in another corporation or business in accordance with the Corporation Code; and
- (h) Dissolution of the corporation.

A stockholder may vote: (1) directly (i.e., in person); or (2) indirectly through a representative. This representative may be a proxy, a trustee under a voting trust agreement, or an executor or other legal representative appointed by the court. With respect to shares of stock that have been pledged, the pledgor still has the right to attend and vote at stockholders' meetings unless the pledgee is expressly given such right in writing which is recorded on the appropriate books by the pledgor. (Corporation Code, Sec. 55). In case of shares of stock owned jointly by 2 or more persons, in order to vote the same, the consent of all the co-owners is necessary, unless there is a written proxy signed by all co-owners authorizing one or some of them or any other person to vote such share. Where the shares are owned in an "and/or" capacity, any one of the joint owners can vote said shares or appoint a proxy to vote the shares. (Corporation Code, Sec. 56).

Except in cases where voting by ballot is applicable, voting and counting shall be viva voce (voting by speech). If by ballot, the counting shall be supervised by the external auditors by the external auditors and transfer agent of the Corporation.

All stockholders of record at the close of business hours on the stated record date shall be entitled to cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of direction. A stockholder may vote such number of shares for as many persons as there are directors to be elected or he may cumulative said shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the of his shares shall equal, or he may distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he shall see fit: Provided, that the total number of votes cast by him shall not except the number of shares owned by him as shown in the books of the corporation as of the record date multiplied by the whole number of directors to be elected.

The following rules are adopted in the nomination and election of independents directors:

- a. The nomination of Committee shall have at least three (3) members, one of whom is the independent director.
- b. Nomination of Independent director/s shall be conducted by the committee prior to a stockholder's meeting. All recommendation shall signed by the nominating stockholders together with the acceptance and the conformity of the would-be-nominees.
